COVINGTON & BANKS

THE STORE FOR QUALITY

Good Ones.

Robert Walker sold for J. W. Hord, to Indianapolis parties the Pavilion station for $60. The same parties also bought the Benj. Wilcox station at same price.

Circus Tax.

The county clerk has been notified by State Inspector Thatcher as to license fees for circuses. The law provides that a circus must pay $1 for each 100 persons residing in the town.

Fire at Winchester

Winchester suffered a severe loss by fire Saturday morning. Games' livery stable, near the old Court View Hotel, and several adjoining buildings were consumed before the flames could be extinguished. Several horses were burned to death.

Six $100 Premiums.

At the big Madison County Fair, August 18, 19, 20, there will be given six $100 premiums, which will bring stock from all parts of the State. They are for best cow, best male cow, walking stake, saddle ring and best roadster.

One On Richmond Lawyer.

The Valley View Argonaut tells the following: "A Richmond lawyer wound up his prayer at a recent prayer meeting in the following strain. 'In conclusion, your Honor, I might say many other things, but these will suffice tonight.'"

School Books.

Prof. Crabbe, State Superintendent of Schools, issued a list of the books adopted for the use of the country schools for the next five years. The books, arithmetic, grammars, and perhaps others, are the same as are now being used here and the change will make but little difference.

Great Damage To Wheat.

The almost constant rain of the past few weeks has played havoc with the wheat, and, unfortunately, indeed, is the cause of much loss to the farmer. The early rains retard the growth of the grain to a great extent, and now that it will be so hard to harvest, the loss will be still greater. A large crop was sown in Madison and the loss is no trivial matter.

Fair Catalogue.

All the "copy" for the Richmond fair catalogue has been handed in to The Climax job printing department, and the books are now in work. We hope to have them ready in a short time, and you should not fail to get a copy. The premium lists are much larger than heretofore, and many new features have been added. It is safe to predict that Madison will have the best fair ever held here, and the people can look forward to an entertainment well worth coming to see.

Yes, We're Growing.

In his address at Estill Springs, Mayor Woods said, "If you do not think Richmond is growing, take a look at the streets covered with building material. One must walk zigzag to pass the many piles of brick, lumber, and other material being used in the erection of modern buildings." The mayor told the truth, and his words tell the situation. Our town, already the best on the map, is growing rapidly, and with that steady growth we are sure to reach the community there's nothing on the moon. "boom" town order—it's come to stay, and no town in the state has a more brilliant future.

Very Best Granulated Sugar 17 pounds for $1.00. Jas. B. Park, First St.

Brakeman Injured.

Joe Hilton, an L. & N. brakeman, was injured at Brush Creek Friday night and was brought to his home in this city. At first he appeared to have received serious injuries, but is very much improved and will go back on his run in a few days.

Bank Elects Officers.

At a meeting of directors of the Waco Deposit Bank, the following officers were elected: President, C. L. Searcy; vice-president, R. H. Covington; cashier, R. M. Rowland. The bank is in a prosperous and flourishing condition, paying the usual dividend and enjoying a large volume of business.

Old Fiddlers' Contest.

There will be fun and a good time at the East End Rink Thursday night, the 23rd. Arrangements have been made for an old fiddlers' contest to be given that night, and many of the best old fiddlers of the low have entered their names and a hot contest is assured. After the contest, a dance will be given.

Serious Accident.

Mr. Jay Lackey, of the firm of Todd & Lackey, met with a very serious and painful accident last week. While sawing wood a splinter flew and stuck him in the eye, and the pain was so excruciating that Mr. Lackey was taken to a specialist in Lexington. He was advised that the eye had been totally destroyed and would have to be removed. Mr. Lackey is still suffering greatly, and it is hoped the accident will not prove as serious as is anticipated.

Special Week-End Rate.

Messrs. Riddell, of Estill Springs have decided to make a special week-end rate of $2.75 from Saturday afternoon to Monday morning, and the plan is working well, as many are taking advantage of this low rate to enjoy the delightful resort. So many are taking advantage of this rate that Mr. Riddell has decided to give a grand ball each Saturday night. This is the best time to visit Estill, as there is a crowd of delightful people there and the service can not be excelled.

Special Trains.

The Lancaster Fair Association has arranged for three special trains to its exhibitions, July 28, 29, 30. One will run from Richmond, from Corbin and another from Louisville, on each day of the fair. It required but a little time to get these trains, but with such men as John Farra and Bob Elkin at the helm, success in any undertaking is assured. The Climax is glad to state that a large number of our people will go down and take in the big shows in our neighboring city. The Richmond special will leave about 7:30 a. m., returning after the fair.

Cow Test.

The State Board of Health has issued a sweeping proclamation, requiring every cow in the State to be subjected to the tuberculin test, ordering the immediate destruction of those which the test shows to be infected with tuberculosis, and providing that no cattle can hereafter be brought into the State until the tuberculin test has been shown that they are free from tuberculosis germs. Experiments conducted by Dr. Cyrus W. Field, bacteriologist and pathologist of the University of Louisville, under the direction of a milk commission appointed by the Jefferson County Fiscal Court, resulted in this recommendation, which is intended to protect the health of the consumers of milk, who might otherwise be infected with tuberculosis from cattle.

Protracted Meeting.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Baptist church in Kingston next Monday, the 19th. The regular pastor will be assisted by Rev. A. R. Willett, a minister of wide reputation and ability. All are invited to attend the services.

Card of Appreciation.

The Climax is asked to publish the following: We, the pupils of the Rollins' class, desire to express our appreciation of her work. By her intense interest, untiring energy and self-sacrificing spirit, she has endeared herself to each and every member of the class. May the Father of Peace preserve and keep her. (Signed) Students of Summer Normal School.

Berry Simpson on Trial.

The trial of Berry Simpson, alleged leader of the riot at Stearns, Ky., on Christmas day, was called at a special term of the United States Court, in this city, Monday. A jury was quickly secured, and the trial is now in progress. Judge Cochran and District Attorney Davidson are here, the former presiding and the latter prosecuting the case.

Mat Sells Some Good Ones.

Lexington Leader.—Mat S. Cohen, the local horseman, has sold two saddle horses to D. J. McCullough, of Atlanta, Ga. One was Princess Patricia, a full sister to Edna May, and sold for $1,600. Princess Patricia is five years old and by Rex Peavine. The other was a walk-trot-canter five-year-old chestnut gelding. The price for the latter animal is private.

Normal Commencement.

Commencement exercises of the Normal School will be held in the Normal Chapel this (Tuesday) evening. The exercises will be interspersed with music by an orchestra composed of local musicians, and a large audience will enjoy the exercises. The diplomas will be delivered by Hon. J. A. Sullivan. Following is the list of the graduates, together with county from which they came: Leslie Anderson, Lincoln; S. B. Barber, Johnson; H. Davis, Boyd; C. B. Fells, Boyle; C. K. Gifford, Mason; C. S. Halbrook, Johnson; C. J. Jones, Knox; Elizabeth Morgan, Oldham; Ida Pettus, Garrard; Cathryn V. Scott, Madison; D. H. Stearns, Grant. The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Dr. J. A. Smith, at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Business Improving.

Apostles of the Richmond uplift are pleased by the stories now being told by merchants of a general tendency to an increase in their business. Saturday was what is known as a "good day" with most of them. They attribute this to the fact that nearly every body is at work full time and the farmers will have fairly good crops, notwithstanding the delay caused by rains. Of course there are exceptions to this condition, but it is the common belief that these exceptions will become rapidly fewer. The whole philosophy of a good business town is bound up in the words, "Give the people money." Of course give is not to be literally construed. But people must have money before they can spend it. The way to have money is to earn it. So it follows that the more people are at work the more prosperous the town, all other things being equal. Right now a concerted attempt should be made to put more people at work, and that it will succeed there is little doubt. Richmond is enjoying a rapid growth, especially so within the past year. I have maintained its supremacy among cities its size. It will take some strong argument to prove to loyal citizens that she will not continue to hold that position.

How It Works.

A Winchester man with a peculiar impediment in one of his eyes which causes the eye to wink rapidly three to five times in succession and then a brief stop before beginning again met with a funny incident while in a local option town on business this week. He had a severe attack of cramp colic and stepped into a drug store to get a remedy to relieve the trouble. The clerk came forward, caught the automatic vibration of that off eye and without a word behind the prescription case brought him out a stiff drink and said, "Fifteen cents." Our Winchester friend handed over the money, and took the drink. Three more drug stores were visited, and that salubrious sign brought three more drinks, but the Winchester man is as yet undecided whether the correct sign was three or five winks, and as it laid out the colic, after the second drink he was in a condition that he didn't much care—Winchester Democrat.

Speaks In New York.

Senator Jas. B. McCreary accepted an invitation to speak before the Tammany Society, in New York City, delivering a Fourth of July oration. He is an honorary member of the society, and the invitation was a compliment highly appreciated by the Senator. By the way, the papers in Kentucky continue to "nominate" Senator McCreary for almost every office within the gift of the people, which goes to show that he is still held in the highest esteem. However, he said to The Climax man, the other day, "I appreciate fully and deeply the use of my name, but I am not a candidate for any office, but am ready at any and all times to give my best services to the interests of the Democratic party."

Strong.

There was a lawyer in it—whose name was Strange, and it was said that never since he had started in his profession had he told a lie. But one day he died, and a collection was taken up among those who knew him for the erection of a memorial stone. After they got it a dispute arose as to what would be suitable to inscribe on it. They all had something to say except one individual, who did not seem to take any interest in the matter, but nothing seemed suitable. At last the person referred to was asked what he thought about it.
